DEDICATION

"... I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal ...'"

—Martin Luther King

Help with People

...the bond of brotherhood makes all men one.

—Goethe

THEME

It has been said that one opens a good book with anticipation and closes it with profit. Faces and expressions portray life as it exists at Abington High School, while words relive specific moments.

Haec olim meminisse jurabit.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Congratulations to the Class of 1969. What a challenging time to be graduating from high school. This is the Age of Experimentation, an Age of Affluence, an Age of National and International Problems that affect the lives of each graduate.

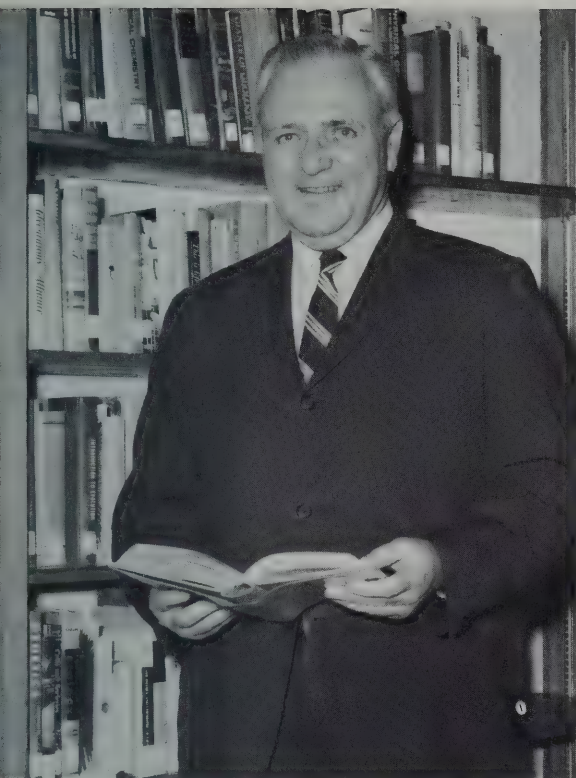

Dissent and demands for change are worthwhile only if solutions acceptable to a democratic society are presented in an orderly manner. The challenges that you graduates face today will require in-depth research, profound thinking, considerable patience, courage and fortitude if problems are to be solved. Don't be quibblers or complainers; be amongst the leaders who are honestly seeking to improve world conditions.

The Faculty of Abington High wish each of you success in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

John A. Murray, Principal

CLASS HISTORY

September, 1965, and the Class of '69 embarked on a new adventure. We were freshmen, and in those days that meant "Honor thy Seniors!"—Paul learned that lesson the hard way: strapped to the toilet!

Hanging at Lynch's was a long-awaited dream of 'Where It's At,' that was soon shattered by The Sheiling. Oh, how we loved those Frolio dances with the famed Reveliers. Directed by our class officers: Dickie, Ann, Gail, and Barbara, we had our first beach trip—evicted at 1:30; minus Rich, Tony, and Pat. Why???

We learned the meaning of pride, and also envy, as we studied the methods of the Upperclassmen and hoped . . . As the year passed, the novelty wore off and finally it was—

September, 1966, and we only had one year before we fell into the category of Upperclassmen (why, only two more years until Seniorhood). At that inbetween age, Sophomores were forgotten and left to fend for themselves.

Mr. Murray fostered school spirit as he forced the Sophomore boys to remain in their homerooms during Rally time—"Tough." Eddie Raspa, most flirtatious, began his reputed career at the Computer Dance, puzzling the computer and dazzling the girls. The first successful Sophomore Hop was held under the guidance of Doug, Betty, Stephen, and Pat. Dale Gardiner will never forget that night he was "branded" Jason McCord—and neither will Tommy!! We ended the year with Dottie Tonoli shedding a few thousand pounds and John Conner was the first to notice. It was difficult to believe, but we became Upperclassmen in—September, 1967. Doug was re-elected along with Dorothy, Lee-Ann, and Stephen. Although Dale lost the election, he continued to run. Remember the class meetings—"Impeach, impeach!!" These officers proved their worth by bringing the Tangerine Zoo to AHS in an ultra-successful dance. Our Juniors dominated the basketball team that year with five starters and a Junior

Captain—YEA, Mike!!—and represented their school in the Tech Tourney. Dottie Orcutt's hair was finally straight after two years of growing out her perm. Mr. Trimble's beloved Freshman class failed in its attempts to dominate our school. On May 17, we held our Junior Prom with "Camelot" as its theme. (Ann was presiding chairman—and queen). The following day brought back memories of our freshman struggles—evicted once again!! Our junior year had one sad note with the departure of Mr. Meyers, but all was right with the world because—

September, 1968 meant that we were finally Seniors. It was funny that we didn't feel any different? We were asked to worry about our future which we did when we found the time. Rockland was defeated by the Green Wave and school spirit ran in our blood. Sarah left but the Old Man returned—Gerry.

After three long summers and winters of perseverance, our basketball team, led by a dedicated coach, achieved their "impossible dream." With a record of 16-2, they won the Old Colony League Championship for the first time in 21 years.

We contracted the college Blues and mailbox watching became our pastime. Frequent visits to the Guidance Office and for some, the Draft Board. Plans for our future must be made for we will be leaving any day. We will advance beyond and above Abington High, but its memory will forever be with us.

We'll always remember: Owen's and Squeak, K of C dances, Rick Rat, Terence and the radio, Sports Banquets, the line-up at Lee-Ann's, pajama parties and Judy, Rallies, Billy, Our Miss Brooks, Ulwick rowing, Ski Trip Raids, Blue Velvet, purple and gold flowers, Joe Palowski, scavenger hunts, Mrs. Walsh's sentence, old maid parties, bomb scares, Muskateers and Cavaliers, Rich's 442; and last, but not least, we remember a 6' 1" man with a 6' 1" heart—Mr. Paul Byron. Many, many thanks, Red.

IN MEMORIAM

JO-ANN PAQUETTE

It is not growing like a tree
In bulk, doth make men better be;
Or standing long an oak, three hundred year,
To fall a log at last, dry, bald, and sere:
A lily of a day
Is fairer far in May,
Although it fall and die that night;
It was the plant and flower of light.
In small proportions we just beauties see;
And in short measures life may perfect be.

—Ben Johnson

1969 CLASS WILL

1. The Senior Boys leave Janet Ware's house empty.
2. Dorothy Orcutt leaves her relationship with Miss Crooks to Betty Warren and Janny Walls.
3. We leave Mr. Trimble LOCKED in the first floor boys' room.
4. The Senior Girls leave Pamela Hutcheons an English book hoping she'll improve her language.
5. Tony Trigler leaves his arms to Frank Leines and his false teeth to Dale Whitmarsh.
6. Andrea and Cheryl leave Miss Dolphyn flipp—er than most.
7. Michael Taylor and Russell Libby leave a boxing ring in the cafeteria.
8. We leave Gus Beaton a pair of glasses in case the referee takes him up on his offer.
9. Peggy Edwards leaves her cymbals to Patty Nero.
10. We leave Bobby Olsen "feeling good."
11. Pat and Michael leave their basketball skills to their brothers.
12. We leave Mr. Dennis flying low.
13. The Physicals leave their bodies to science.
14. The business classes leave wondering what Miss Fitzsimmons does on her ski weekends.
15. We leave Miss Gearin another wig.
16. Bob O'Neil leaves his "co-captaincy" to Roger Sylvia.
17. Marie and Cathy leave the Mary Panepinto Episode "all cleared up."
18. Michael McSharry leaves his "Boob Finder," to Carey Paster.
19. Janet Robinson leaves her peace symbol to Mr. Milton.
20. The Senior Girls would leave their "phoniness" to Candy Franzie and Shiela Damon if they didn't already have it all.
21. Paul, Dale, Fran, and Flight leave the underclassmen broke and bewildered.
22. Larry Bates leaves his surf board to Danny Worrall.
23. Lois Funder leaves her heart to Mr. McAuliffe.
24. We leave Princess and Honey the privacy they require in the corridors.
25. The Senior Boys leave the Sophomore Boys a little modesty.
26. The Fearsome Foursome—Ulwick, Lonsdale, Conner, Raspa—leaves bench space to some lucky underclassmen.
27. The basketball team leaves Mrs. Corcoran its most loyal fan.
28. We leave Mr. Murray to future classes, and if they don't like it—"Tough!!!"
29. Tommy Peck leaves his Santa Claus suit to any underclassman who can "HO, HO, HO!!"
30. The Alakadoodles leave a little more spirit to AHS.
31. We leave Mr. Byron looking a little more like a basketball every year.
32. Finally, the entire Senior Class of 1969 leaves belated and much deserved appreciation to Miss Crooks.

Head Coach Paster with co-captains Dickie MacDonald and Bill Heckler

A season for the seniors, anticipated since their freshman year. There they were, mature, responsible young men—facing formidable foes every Saturday for the honor of AHS. On and on they fought, perpetually prepared for sneak attacks by the enemy. Between the moments of guidance and individual responsibility, the players united into a team. As a single unit, they were victorious over our arch rival and ended the season never conquered in spirit.

the departure of the Team of '69, Abington is left with cherished memories and an elated interest in basketball—a great sport.

OCL CHAMPS

The court Green Wave—whose hustle, determination, and inspired devotion propelled them to the first OCL win in 21 years—make us proud to say, “We come from Abington.”

Our coach—who took these players, when all they possessed was raw talent, and polished them into the team we watched with awe and admiration as they worked the ball down the court.

JUNIOR VARSITY SQUAD

They learned the tactics of basketball quickly and played with enthusiasm . . . They watched their superiors and hoped . . . the team of the future will go far.
